NAMAR HONORS LEO LLONCH AS GOOD NEIGHBOR OF THE YEAR

DULUTH, GA, MAY 7, 2008: To recognize Realtors® who are making exceptional contributions to improve the quality of life in their community, The Northeast Atlanta Metro Association of Realtors (NAMAR) presents a good neighbor award each month to a deserving NAMAR member. On May 7, 2008, Leo Llonch, the September/October 2007 recipient, was awarded the Good Neighbor of the Year award. His application will be submitted to the National Association of REALTORS Good Neighbor of the Year Award.

Leo Llonch is a Realtor with Virtual Properties Realty, headquartered in Duluth, GA. He volunteers his time, resources and money to help the youth of his community. On June 2, 2007, Leo pulled off a successful fundraiser for the Children's Healthcare of Atlanta (CHOA). As the Fundraiser Director for the Southeast Paddlers, Leo spent more than six months organizing the benefit Paddlethon for CHOA. He served as the event coordinator, fund raiser, public relations director, race director and volunteer coordinator. Proceeds were used for pain management at the Children's Surgery Center.

Not only is Leo passionate about the healthcare of our children but he also contributes to their education. As a Trustee of the Gainesville State College Foundation, Leo helps raise funds to assist underprivileged students to pay tuition and/or fees to attend college.

Llonch was nominated by NAMAR FOR Realtor Magazine's Good Neighbor of the Year award. Five winners will be announced in November 2008 and will receive a $10,000 grant for their charity.

What a privilege it is to have a colleague with such passion and dedication on our team! He exemplifies what leadership and excellence in the community is. And we are proud to have him say he is a Realtor® with Virtual Properties Realty.
