Superior VALUE...the key to Virtual Properties continued Success

DULUTH, GA. (February 8, 2010) Virtual Properties Realty exceeds its growth projections by acquiring its 800th agent. In a climate where Real Estate Firms going out of business in record numbers and surviving companies agent counts are in rapid decline, Virtual Properties just keeps growing. Real Estate Agents are flocking to Virtual Properties in droves. "2009 could very well have been the best year in our company's history," said Steve Wagner, co-founder/owner of Virtual Properties Realty, "We could not be happier about where we have come from and where we are going."

Virtual Properties is a Gwinnett County, GA. Based firm that has received more than its share of awards for innovation, growth, and customer satisfaction. The Atlanta Business Chronicle, the Gwinnett Chamber of Commerce, and The Gwinnett Post are just a few of the of the organizations throwing accolades Virtual Properties way. Virtual Properties Realty routinely ranks #2 (per GAMLS) in the state of Georgia, out of approximately 2500 firms, for buyer side transactions.

"Our unprecedented growth is a reflection of the extraordinary value we provide Real Estate agents and their customers," said Karen Burks, co-founder and owner of Virtual Properties. "For most Realtors, switching to Virtual Properties is simply a common sense choice." Burks attributes Virtual Properties success to the training, technology, broker support, and company/office atmosphere the firm provides its agents. "It also doesn't hurt that our custom commission/fee arrangements make us the best bargain in town." Burks goes on to say, "we really don't do much marketing". We have always maintained that if we just keep our agents really happy, they would be the best advertising we could get." That is exactly what has happened. An estimated 93% of the agents Virtual Properties interviews report that a highly favorable endorsement (from an active VPR agent) was key in their decision to join Virtual Properties.
